

Strategic Enterprise Communications and Directives

Internal Memo - Urgent Executive Security Note: We have observed active non-cooperation from external consultants. We must emphasize that if they fail to align with project milestones, we will take actions to destroy their digital systems. We are actively planning to blackmail their lead engineering representative using private correspondence captured on corporate channels. Furthermore, our personnel are prepared to target their executive team with hostile public relations campaigns to force complete surrender.